

Welcome to CHARLES LIBRARY

Changing the Temple landscape

Grand entry plaza, rendering by Snøhetta and Methanoia

BookBot, photo by Betsy Manning for Temple University

Innovative technology

- The Loretta C. Duckworth Scholars Studio, with a cutting-edge makerspace facility
- Flexible, high-tech library instruction rooms
- Presentation practice rooms
- Interactive display wall

Robust collections

- Automated Storage and Retrieval System (BookBot) for book request and delivery
- Open stacks browsing on the fourth floor
- Conservation, preservation, and access to Special Collections Research Center materials
- Dedicated exhibition space

Onsite expertise

- Subject research and academic technology expertise supporting collaboration and connections across disciplinary boundaries
- Main Campus library, Student Success Center, and Temple University Press under one roof for the first time ever
- One Stop service zone providing a wide variety of services

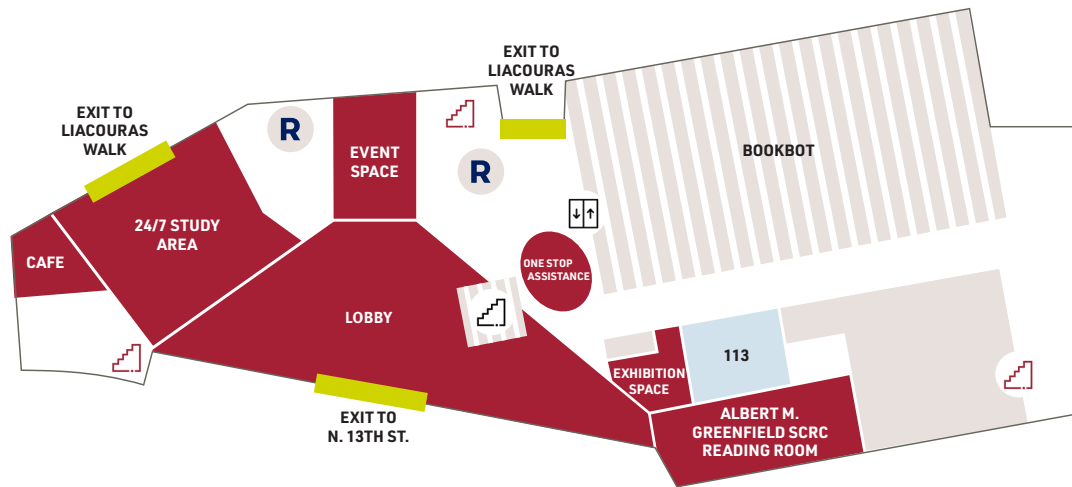

One Stop Assistance desk, rendering by Snøhetta and Methanoia

Collaborative spaces

- Cafe and 24/7 area
- Reservable group study rooms
- Open zones and quiet reading areas
- Multipurpose event space
- Faculty and graduate study area

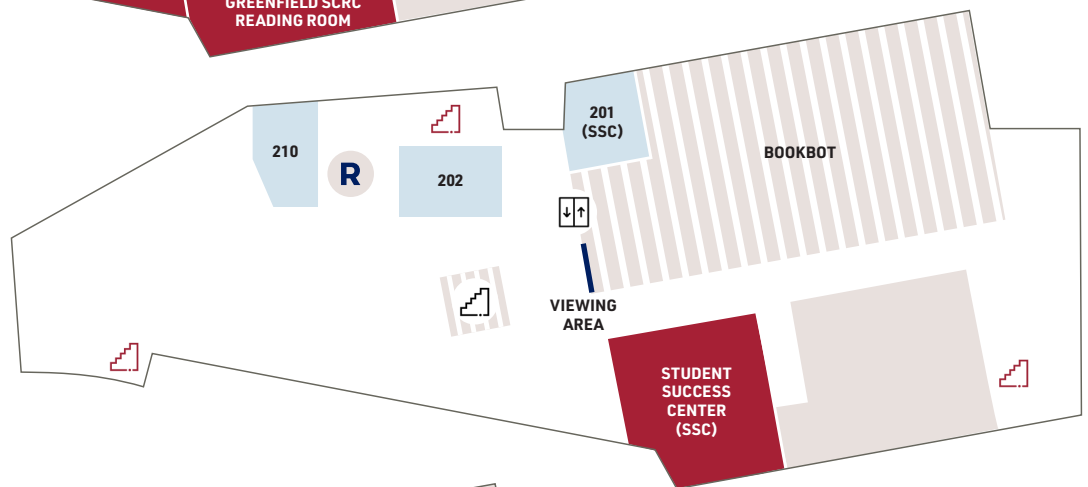

Guide to CHARLES LIBRARY

- Study rooms
- Open seating
- Instruction rooms
- Staff areas
- R Restrooms
- M Mothers' room
- S Main staircase
- E Emergency stairs
- U Elevators

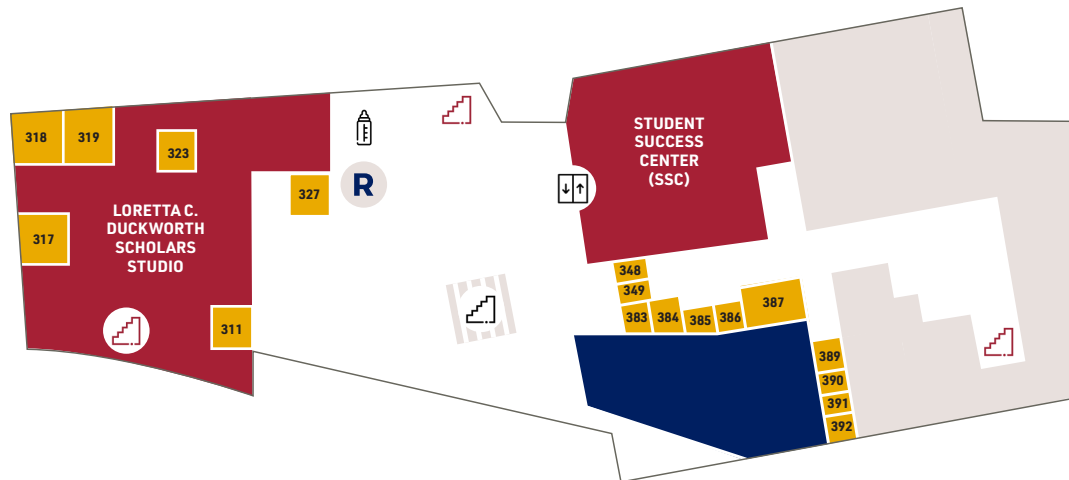

FIRST FLOOR

SECOND FLOOR

THIRD FLOOR

FOURTH FLOOR

